Advanced Storage & Mooring Usage Terms

All equipment must be moved off of CBC's property no later than Sunday August 3rd by 1800, including boats on moorings, c420s on land, and trailers of any kind. Any equipment left after this deadline is subjected to a $75.00 fee, per day.

While boats are on CBC's property, CBC is not liable for any stolen items off the boat and the boat itself.

Trailer storage before Thursday July 31st needs to be arranged with the Operations Manager at Community Boating before arrival.

All advanced storage equipment must be moved into the BBR staging area (Town of Dartmouth Lot) no later than 1900 on July 31st. Any equipment left inside CBC's boat area will be subjected to a $25.00 per day charge.

CBC's programs will have priority use over moorings and pier use till Thursday July 31st at 1800. There is plenty of room for everyone's needs.

Practice times Monday through Thursday will begin 1000 each morning and the CBC's boat yard will be locked each night at 1800.

CBC will not be responsible for any damage to any boat left on CBC's property including CBC's mooring field.

Anyone on CBC's pier must wear an approved Coast Guard lifejacket at all times. Also while on the water lifejackets are also required for sailors, parents, and coaches. This will be strictly enforced before and during the regatta.

There is no alcohol or smoking on CBC's property or in the 420 Staging Area.

Parking will be available before the regatta in the Town of Dartmouth lot directly across the street at 10.00 per vehicle/per trailer per day. During the event parking will be limited to on street parking in the neighborhood and limited space in the Town of Dartmouth lot.

Please be respectful of our neighbors and to the public.

City of New Bedford & Town of Dartmouth may tow your car. This is not CBC or BBR responsibility. When parking, please do not block driveways and park where it is allowed.

At any time if you have a question or a concern please contact a CBC or BBR staff member.

I agree to the terms outlined above.
